

CUT CHEMIST

Litmus Test

Cut Chemist's Litmus Test is a self-mixed retrospective showcasing one of the 1990's great DJ/producers' repertoire. Originally released in 2004, the album ushered in his solo era as a precursor to his Warner Brothers debut release The Audience Is Listening.

A mix of selected productions/mixes Cut Chemist had done to date - some for hire, some for pleasure, and many for the group he'd become famous with, Jurassic 5. This compilation is a good snapshot of his career, and makes one realize the level of talent that was quietly lurking behind the turntables in J5 - from his work with retro-funk label Now Again ("Bunky's Pick") to backpack Hip Hop kids Ugly Duckling to futuristic complex rappers Blackalicious and bedroom cut-up exercises in "Lesson 6", Cut Chemist made a case that established his legacy as one of the greats of the era, expertly segueing and blending a catalogue of his own compositions, ending up with a new album, which turns out to be a real solid listen.

For fans of: DJ Shadow, Edan, Q-Bert, Jurassic 5, Quannum, The Roots, Stones Throw Records and the Cut-Up genre.

Format: CD

Cat. No: ASS 001

Label: A Stable Sound

Available: Aug 10th 2010

Format: LP

Cat. No: ASS 001

Label: A Stable Sound

Available: Aug 10th 2010

www.cutchemist.com
www.musicoultimes.com
www.twitter.com/cutchemist
www.myspace.com/cutchemist
www.facebook.com/cutchemist

