Burgeoning New York indie label Coalmine Records gets set to release The Foundation: Produced Entirely by Shuko. The Foundation is a mixed discography of new, previously released and remixed hits produced entirely by German super producer, Shuko. Hosted by the incredible rap team, Heltah Skeltah and mixed by DJ Dutchmaster, The Foundation includes guest appearances from many of today’s most iconic and celebrated hip-hop artists, such as Rakim, Papoose, Talib Kweli, Sean Price, Skyzoo, Jae Millz, Canibus, Torae, R.A. The Rugged Man and more. This sixty minute fast paced, mixed discography sets no limits as it delivers a project designed to permeate through the boundaries of today’s global hip-hop marketplace, from the thirty-something veteran enthusiast to the suburban teen market, alike. Coalmine has financed and managed the production of this project that is set for a March 24th 2009 release date.

Key Selling Points

- Production/Features: Features production from German’s super-producer Shuko (Lil Wayne, Mims, Kardinal Offishal) as well as high profile features that include Rakim, Papoose, Talib Kweli, Heltah Skeltah, Canibus, DJ Revolution & more.
- Promotions: Worldwide servicing of single “Midnight Madness” and album to mixshow, college radio, and various tastemakers through Foundation Media.
- Marketing: Three month full scale (print and online media) publicity campaign. Press releases will be distributed to all relevant media sources in effort to secure interviews, reviews and features. A viral marketing campaign will be initiated that will place a heavy concentration on promoting album related material and vlogs to several key web and blog sites.
- Venues: Coalmine has paired with the renown Lyricist Lounge for a series of shows that will showcase several of the artists and songs featured on The Foundation.
