

CHIEF KAMACHI

“The Clock of Destiny”

1. 2nd Lecture
2. Clock Keep Tickin’
3. Kamalah
4. Steel Umbrella
5. Clock of Destiny
6. Prince Hall
7. Little African Girl
8. True and Living
9. Crooked Angel
10. 11:59
11. Let the Organs Play
12. Outro

Though he’s dropped just two solo efforts to date, Chief Kamachi has much more of a prescience than his solo career would indicate. Start with the fact that he’s an original member of legendary Hip Hop collective Army Of The Pharaohs. With AOTP, Kamachi has toured the world and the world has heard his skills on the mic. Then there’s his highly acclaimed collaboration entitled Beautiful Minds with Wu Tang affiliate Killah Priest from 2008 (in which multiple reviews declared him “officially slept-on”) and the Black Candles release with the Ju Ju Mob. He’s also collaborated on cuts with Planet Asia, Outerspace, Reef The Lost Cauze and Guru.

Now the time is for the third solo effort from Philly’s Chief Kamachi, The Clock Of Destiny. Kamachi grips the mic and brings it hard for 12 tracks of pure energy, lyricism and knowledge. The beats are courtesy of Tekneek, C-Sik and The Snowgoons. On March 23rd the clock strikes dope on Chief Kamachi’s The Clock Of Destiny.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- Publicity by Roundabout Marketing (past clients include Warner Brothers, Def Jam, Lil Scrappy, Prodigy, Little Brother and more)
- Radio promotion by Papa D!
- Features confirmed on Hiphopdx.com, YoRaps.com and many more
- iTunes Music calls Chief Kamachi: “Officially Slept On”
- Massive consumer awareness of Chief Kamachi due to his involvement with Army of the Pharaohs
- Late Spring west coast tour with Killah Priest
- Soundscan Highlights:
 - 2004’s Cult Status — 1800 units
 - 2005’s Black Candles — 1700 units
 - 2006’s Concrete Gospel — 2700 units
 - and over 60,000 units in total with AOTP

ORDER CUT OFF DATE FOR THIS ITEM: MAR 16th

Format: CD

Cat. No: NGM 898

Label: Noize Gallery Music

Available: APRIL 6th

TRAFFIC
entertainment group

