

AFRICAN MUSIC TODAY

1. Feeling Good — Bama & The Family
2. Zafari — Zafari
3. Children's Song — The Third Eye
4. Black Out — The Original Brothers
5. Percussive Movement #2 — Friends Of The Family
6. Googie — Bama & The Family
7. Brick By Brick — Jojo Quo & His Challengers
8. Jibberish — Bama & The Family
9. Addis Ababa — Zafari
10. Every Woman is Good Woman — Jojo Quo & His Challengers
11. Afro Groove — Adamu Okosun and the Warri Six
12. Lights Out — Jojo Quo & His Challengers
13. Percussive Movement — Friends Of The Family

THE SOUND OF AFRICA TODAY COMPILED FOR THE FIRST TIME ON ONE DISC

FEATURING: BAMA & THE FAMILY, JOJO QUO & HIS CHALLENGERS, THE ORIGINAL BROTHERS AND MORE!

African Music Today is the culmination of a project started seven years ago by world famous record collector Phillip Lehman, who brought his musical knowledge and expertise to help create this collection of some of the funkier Afro grooves known to man. This compilation spotlights a diverse range of contemporary African artists, from the James Brown-inspired funk of Bama & The Family to the percussive heavy grooves of Pierre Osinibi and Ethiopian sounds of Zafari. It's modern music that recalls the heyday of Fela Kuti, Tony Allen, Mulatu Astatke and others, painstakingly curated by Phillip Lehman and brought to you by Truth & Soul Records on CD in a 4-panel digipak with an obi strip.

ORDER CUT OFF DATE FOR THIS ITEM: JULY 20th

Format: CD

Cat. No: TS 014

Label: Truth & Soul Records

Available: AUG 10th

TRUTH & SOUL

TRUTH & SOUL

